

Bárbara Albízuri
Telefónica Ventures Head of Investments

Head of Investments at Telefónica Ventures. Prior to joining Telefonica almost 4 years ago, she worked as an Investment Banker for 14 years in top tier international Investment Banks (Citigroup, Merrill Lynch-Bank of America, UBS and the Royal Bank of Scotland). Along such years she developed a vast expertise in three main investment banking areas: M&A, Debt & Ratings Advisory and Transactional Banking (cash management, trade and FX products) in the abovementioned major international players.

My educational background includes: Executive Digital Business Programme in ISDI (Digital Talent), Law and Business Management double degree from ICADE (E-3) University in Madrid and Georgetown and LSE financial related courses

Passionate about practicing ski and golf with my family. Committed with social projects, having set up a programme of delivering staple food for 350 extreme poverty families during the first COVID confinement in the spring of 2020 in Madrid.