

Telefónica, S.A.

MS. CARMEN GARCÍA DE ANDRÉS
Member of the Board of Directors of Telefónica, S.A.

Born in Madrid on 15th of December 1962.

She holds a degree in Economic and Business Sciences from Universidad Pontificia de Comillas, ICADE.

Currently, Ms. García is Chairwoman of Tomillo Foundation.

She joined PricewaterhouseCoopers (Coopers & Lybrand Legacy) in 1985, being promoted as Head officer in 1995 and Associate in 2000. Since then, she held various leadership positions at Ladwell -Abogados y Asesores Fiscales as well as at PwC. Ms. García is specialized in advice of large companies, and she has been representative of the Spanish brand at the International Specialist Group in Indirect Taxation for more than six years. Since 1998, she has been counseling international companies established in Spain with a major worldwide involvement.

Since 2004 until 2007, she has been Managing Partner of the Gran Consumo, Distribución, Industria y Servicios Group of Madrid with more than 30 experts in legal and taxation areas. Likewise, during the years 2005 and 2007, she was responsible of Diversity Program, Women in PwC.

Since 2006, she has been Member of the Trust of Tomillo Foundation, and became the Managing Director of this non-profit institution in March 2008, and its Executive Chairwoman since 2014.

She is currently head of the Tomillo Tietar Foundation and member of its Trust. Moreover, since 2013 until April 2017, she has been Chairwoman of the Young Business Spain Foundation and Ms. García is currently member of its Trust.

Since June 2011, Ms. García has been member of the Board of Directors of the Asociación Española de Fundaciones (AEF), and she is currently its Treasurer.

Currently, she is member of the Trust of Rais and Xavier de Salas Foundations, as well as Member of the Board of Directors of the collective initiative Juntos por el Empleo de los más desfavorecidos.

Additionally, since 2005 until 2010, she was contributor of Programa Lidera and MET (Women, Company and Technology) of the Instituto de Empresas. Likewise, she was an International Taxation professor at ESADE, during the courses 2005/06 and 2006/07, and a facilitator of Circles of Trust – Center for Courage and Renewal-2017.
