We distributed to holders of our existing ordinary shares rights to subscribe for an aggregate of 281,213,184 of our ordinary shares, par value 1.00 euros per share (the “New Shares”). Each ordinary share held of record as of 11:59 p.m. (Madrid, Spain time) on March 27, 2015 entitled its holder to one right to subscribe for New Shares. Sixteen rights were required to subscribe for one New Share at a subscription price of €10.84 per share (the “Subscription Price”). A holder of rights that exercised all of its rights was also able to apply during the Preemptive Subscription Period (as defined below) to subscribe at the Subscription Price for additional New Shares that were not subscribed for pursuant to the exercise of rights (the “Additional Shares”). We accepted subscription for whole ordinary shares only. The subscription period for the rights commenced on March 28, 2015 and expired at the close of business in Madrid, Spain on April 12, 2015 (the “Preemptive Subscription Period”).

Holders of American Depositary Shares, or ADSs, each representing one ordinary share, did not receive rights to subscribe for new ADSs. The rights with respect to ordinary shares represented by ADSs were issued to Citibank, N.A., as depositary (the “Depositary”). At the instruction of holders, a total of 531,757 ADSs were cancelled during the period from March 28, 2015 until March 31, 2015, and the shares and the rights underlying such ADSs were delivered upon the instruction of the cancelling holders. The Depositary has sold the remainder of the rights it received on behalf of ADS holders and will distribute the net cash proceeds, after accounting for the Depositary’s fees and expenses and applicable taxes, pro rata to the remaining holders of ADSs as of a record date determined by the Depositary.

Pursuant to an underwriting agreement that we entered into with the underwriters listed in “Underwriting” in the prospectus supplement dated March 26, 2015 (the “Underwriters”), the Underwriters severally agreed to procure, during a period starting at 5:45 p.m. (Madrid, Spain time) on the fourth trading day following the end of the Preemptive Subscription Period and ending by no later than 9:00 a.m. (Madrid, Spain time) on the following trading day (the “Discretionary Shares Allocation Period”), certain institutional investors to subscribe for any New Shares that were not subscribed for after expiration of the rights (the “Discretionary Shares”). The Underwriters also severally agreed to subscribe and pay, in their own name and on their own behalf in proportion to their respective underwriting commitments, at the Subscription Price, any Discretionary Shares that were not subscribed for at the end of the Discretionary Shares Allocation Period or, in the event that Banco Bilbao Vizcaya Argentaria, S.A., Banco Santander, S.A., CaixaBank, S.A., J.P. Morgan Securities plc., Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc. and UBS Limited jointly with the Company shall have determined not to commence the Discretionary Shares Allocation Period, all of the Discretionary Shares.

The results of the offering are set forth below:

- 278,829,780 New Shares were subscribed for by the holders of rights during the Preemptive Subscription Period;
- 771,422,480 Additional Shares were applied for by the holders of rights during the Preemptive Subscription Period, of which 2,383,404 Additional Shares were allocated pro-rata and subscribed for on April 16, 2015; and
- because all the New Shares were fully subscribed for during the Preemptive Subscription Period and as a result of applications to subscribe for Additional Shares, the Discretionary Shares Allocation Period was not commenced.
