

MS. CARMEN GARCÍA DE ANDRÉS
Member of the Board of Directors of Telefónica, S.A.

Born in Madrid on 15th of December 1962.

She holds a degree in Economic and Business Sciences from Universidad Pontificia de Comillas, ICADE.

Currently, Ms. García is Chairwoman of the Tomillo Foundation.

She joined PricewaterhouseCoopers in 1985, being promoted as Head officer in 1995 and Partner in 2000. Since then, she held various leadership positions at Ladwell -Abogados y Asesores Fiscales, and in the Legal and Tax Department of PwC. Ms. García is specialized in advice of large companies, and she has been representative of the Spanish brand at the International Specialist Group in Indirect Taxation for more than 6 years. Since 1998, she has been counseling international companies established in Spain with a major worldwide involvement, with a special focus on the FMCG, Industry and ICT sectors. She is also Head of the Diversity programme, Women in PwC. Since then, she has collaborated as a mentor in professional development programmes for women and young people.

Since 2006, Ms. García is member of the Trust of Tomillo Foundation, becoming the Director of this non-profit institution in March 2008, and its Executive Chairwoman since 2014. She is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Fundación Tomillo Tiétar, which promotes social development and agricultural innovation in Extremadura, Spain.

Since June 2011, Ms. García has been member of the Board of Directors of the Asociación Española de Fundaciones (AEF), and she is currently its Treasurer and a member of the Executive Committee.

She has promoted collaborative initiatives for comprehensive, social and environmental education, as well as the creation of collaborative networks in order to support youth entrepreneurship and self-employment, such as the Youth Business Spain Foundation, of which she was Chairwoman until 2017.

Co-Founder and Patron of Aprendiendo a Ser Foundation, whose mission is to support those who educate. Currently she is a member of the Boards of the Secretariado Gitano Foundation, Somos F5 Foundation and Xavier de Salas Foundation.

*****