

MS. MARÍA ROTONDO URCOLA
Member of the Board of Directors of Telefónica, S.A.

Born in Madrid, on 18 May 1964.

Ms. Rotondo has a degree in Economics and Business Administration from the Complutense University of Madrid. She has received complementary training at various Institutions such as ESG Academy/Foretica, IESE, IC-A, EEC, IMD, NYU, Harvard, Boston College, among others.

Since 2016 Ms. Rotondo is a member of the University's Advisory Board and is currently Co-Director and professor in the Executive Sustainability Programme, where she teaches classes on corporate governance and sustainability. In addition, Ms. Rotondo teaches at BME since 2014, in the Master Investor Relations. She is also a lecturer in various forums and continues with her coaching/mentoring activities.

She is currently an independent Director of CACEIS Bank Spain, of SANTANDER CACEIS LATAM HOLDING, of LIBERTAS 7 and of RESITER, S.A. in Chile. Previously, she was an independent Director of Indra (2017-2021). Currently she participates in the Advisory Board of the Nebrija University College of Economics and Business.

Regarding her professional experience, it is worth stressing that during her last 10 years at Banco Santander (2006-2016), she was Global Head of the Telecommunications, Media and Technology within Investment Banking Area, leading important strategic operations within the telecommunications sector. Previously (1989-2006), at Santander Investment Sociedad de Valores y Bolsa, she was an Investment Analyst specialized in various sectors, particularly in the telecommunications sector, Macroeconomist, and Head of Equity Research Europe. Previously, she worked for 2 years in New York at EXTEBANK and at the Spain-US Chamber of Commerce.

Among the awards received, the most noteworthy are the following: Finalist 2016 TMT Finance EMEA, Best Corporate Finance Deal (OPA Orange-Jazztel); 1999-2002 Reuters-Institutional Investor, 1 Ranked European Telecom Analyst; 2001 Footsie-Actualidad Económica, 1 Ranked analyst all sectors in Spain 2001; 2000 Institutional Investors, First Equity Research team in Spain by Institutional Investors; and 1997 Vallehermoso Award, 1 Real Estate Analyst (Ladrillo de Oro 1997).

*****