

MS. ANA MARÍA SALA ANDRÉSMember of the Board of Directors of Telefónica, S.A.

Born in Terrassa (Barcelona), on April 12, 1967.

Ms. Sala holds a degree in Law in the Autonomous University of Barcelona. Likewise, she also holds a Master's Degree in Comparative Law, Autonomous University of Barcelona and LL.M. University of California at Berkeley (USA). Doctor in Law, Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona. Assistant Professor, Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona, and Director of Law Studies at the Virtual University UOC, Barcelona.

Ms. Sala joined Cortés Abogados in 2005 and she has been a partner in the firm since 2014. Likewise, she is currently a Secretary (no Director) of the Board of Directors of Indra Sistemas, S.A. and of the Board of Directors of Sacyr, S.A.

Extensive experience in corporate practice, mergers and acquisitions operations, in the contract area, and in participation in national and international arbitrations. She develops her professional practice at the national and international level. She has advised, in particular, on corporate governance and sustainability to listed and unlisted companies in Spain, has participated in the restructuring and refinancing of national and international corporate groups, has advised Family Offices in the development of its activities, has participated in OPVs and OPAs, and has extensive practice in international arbitration.

Author of books and publications on Commercial Law.
